

NeXplore CTO Dion Hinchcliffe to Present at Web 2.0 Expo

FRISCO, TX, April 17, 2007 —NT Technologies, Inc. (OTC: NTTI), through its wholly-owned subsidiary NeXplore Technologies, Inc., today announced that Dion Hinchcliffe, chief technology officer for NeXplore Technologies, Inc., will lead several sessions and conduct a workshop at Web 2.0 Expo, an annual tradeshow and conference co-produced by O'Reilly Media, Inc. and CMP Technology, Inc. to educate developers, designers, marketers and entrepreneurs on how to build successful Web 2.0 products and companies.

Web 2.0 Expo will take place April 15-18, 2007 at the Moscone West Convention Center in San Francisco.

“Beyond the Web 2.0 hype, and transcending the tired and tedious debate over precisely defining what this term means, is the very real, very exciting nuts-and-bolt work of building and deploying Web 2.0 products that are genuinely transforming how the Web works and how businesses operate,” said Hinchcliffe. “The Web 2.0 conference is about sharing experience and insight on what works in the Web 2.0 world, and what does not. It is exciting to have a hand in laying the foundation for Web 2.0 best practices. I’m looking forward to what I’m confident will be a productive conference.”

Dion Hinchcliffe will lead the following sessions and workshop during the Web 2.0 Expo:

- Workshop: What is Web 2.0: The Rules for Creating Successful Online Products in the 21st Century
Date: Sunday, April 15
Time: 2:00 pm – 5:00pm
Location 2008
- Session: An Overview of Badges and Widgets: The Fast Rise of Viral Web Parts
Date: Tuesday, April 17
Time: 1:30 pm – 2:30pm
Location 2008
- Session: Web 2.0 for Government and Non-Profits
Date: Wednesday, April 18
Time: 4:30 pm – 5:20pm
Location 2009
